

Joe,

On behalf of the "Keys To Success" Committee, Thank you very much for sharing your time, knowledge, and compassion for sewing and helping families of children with special needs under Estate Planning. The evaluations indicated your presentation was excellent and all received the information we hoped or expected to receive.

The typical responses were "Great Info. and helpful", "Great", "This was very informative", "Very Informative. Well presented"! We all appreciate the time you volunteered on a Saturday and appreciate your support for families of children with special needs. Thank you!
